

Let the Anger Go

*The answers we may never know
So we have to let the anger go
Some are tired, angry or just sad
For all the years she never had*

*She had lives to save and babies to bring
Into the world to make our hearts sing
She was sent to teach us about kindness and love
An Angel on earth from up above*

*We try to be brave, our tears we hide
Hoping her memory will quell the anguish inside
She will do her very best
To help us through this dreadful test
If you watch very carefully
She will not be very far from thee*

*Her light will forever shine
Her presence among us was a precious gift
We will remember for the rest of time
We have to let the anger go
If only because we loved her so*

*Inspired by a dear friend
Lynn Finch 2004*