*“A Paramedic I want to be”
They were the words she said to me
Of that she was sure, there was never a doubt
She always knew it would come about
She said
“I’ll make a difference and show I care
I’ll ask God’s help in my prayer
To ease the suffering of my fellow man
I’ll do the best that I possibly can
The days will be long, without much rest
There will be days I will be put to the test
Whatever comes my way, I will bravely face
Everything is possible when you have God’s grace”*

*Paramedics – the unsung heroes
God Bless Them All*
